As the general partner of WBC, Freeman Edwards, II has full and exclusive authority to manage and control the business affairs and operations of the partnership.

Freeman Edwards, II, WBC's general partner, will be integration into station's operation on a full-time basis (40 or more hours per week) as the station's general manager. His duties will include the selection of employees; selection of the music format and other programming, to include news and public affairs programming; and supervision of all departments of the station, to include sales, programming, financial/administrative and engineering. Mr. Edwards will terminate his present employment, and any future employment, in order to be available for this full-time position.

Mr. Edwards has been a resident of Westerville, Ohio since 1986 and a resident of the service area since 1984. From 1984 to 1986 Mr. Edwards resided in Columbus, Ohio. He will continue to reside in Westerville if the WBC application is granted.

Mr. Edwards is a Black American and will claim qualitative credit for such status.

Mr. Edwards has been active in community affairs in the proposed service area since 1986. His participation and the approximate dates of involvement includes the following:

- ° Lion's International - District 13-F, Westerville, Ohio.
A member since November 1990; Director from May 1991 to December 1991. This organization provides fund-raising events, community service and scholarships for the Westerville community.
- ° Big Brother/Sister Organization, Columbus, Ohio.
Member, 1986-1992; coach to a little brother attending Westerville schools.
- ° National Telephone Pioneers, Columbus, Ohio Chapter.
Member, 1990 to present. This organization provides a local community service.

3.

WBC will install auxiliary power at its studio and transmitter site to ensure continued operation of the station during power outages.

Freeman Edwards, II is the general partner of South Central Broadcasting Company Limited Partnership. Deidra W. Humphrey and Spurgeon W. Webber, III are limited partners. South Central is the sole limited partner (holding a 25% equity interest) of Spalding Broadcasting L.P., permittee of a new FM Broadcast Station at Zebulon, Georgia. In the event the instant application is granted, WBC, and its principals, will divest their interest in and terminate all connection with Spalding Broadcasting L.P. and the station at Zebulon, Georgia, prior to commencement of program tests by the Westerville station.
